VOL. CVXIIII—156. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, SATURDAY, JULY 19, 1913. PRICE, 2 CENTS

INHUMAN DEEDS OF BULGAR TROOPS

Defenseless Women Dishonored, Burned Alive and Beheaded.

MANY ARE CRUCIFIED.

Unheard of Cruelty Practiced Upon Young and Old—Cause Damages of Over $20,000,000.

Athens, July 19.—Authenticated details of massacres, mutilations, and a veritable holocaust of rapine and murder visited upon inhabitants of Seres and the surounding country by the Bulgarian troops reached here today in the form of a long statement from the Austrian consul at Salonika.

The officials charge that several Bulgarian officers—and he gives their regiment and company—with having dishonored his wife in the presence of scores of soldiers and hundreds of the inhabitants,who were later shot down and bayoneted.

The Austrian consuls story of the appalling outrages by Bulgarian soldiers includes in many instances names of notables burned to death, crucified, hacked to pieces or terribly mutilated, and left dying. A special investigating body sent to Seres also has reported. The report confirms the charges made by the Austrian consul.

Toward the evening of the last day of murder, according to the report, about eighty women and girls were found hidden in the basement of a warehouse by a company of soldiers led by a lieutenant. It is declared that after the younger women, some of them girls of tender age had been dishonored, the soldiers secured several barrels of petroleum oil from a nearby storage house, poured it over the women, locked all exits, and set fire to the place.

The bodies were found by the investigating committee. Some of the bodies were headless, others had been dismembered.

In a large public hall, twenty officials and wealthy men of the town were herded by the soldiers, who stabbed them with bayonets and swords, and then carried them to a trench and covered them party with earth. Several of them were alive when cast into the trench. One man, terribly slashed about the face and body, lived to tell the committee of what had happened.

The committee reports that the number of massacered will never be known, but that it will reach thousands. Property damage through fires and the looting of stores and private residences, the committee believes will reach close to $20,000,000. Much of this was portable and included money, jewelry, silverware, and rare tapestries and metal from the churches that were sacked.

SCHOOL GIRL MISSING.

16-Year-Old Girl Believed to Have Been Kidnapped by Show People.

Galesburg, Ill., July 19.—What has become of Marie Hart, Galesburg's 327-pound school girl?

This question worried Galesburg's police and relatives of the girl today. Although hard to believe, information developed by the police lead them to the conclusion that she was kidnapped.

Marie left home last night telling her folks she was going to the "movies." She wasn't home by midnight and so her relatives, neighbors and most of the local police searched all night for her.

It is believed the girl was spirited away by show people, who wanted her for exhibition purposes. She is only 16 years of age.

CHARGES AGAINST GEORGE H. BIXBY

Sensational Stories Concerning pursuit of Young Girls.

OTHERS IMPLICATED.

Millionaire Banker, of Long Beach, Charged With Aiding Delinquency of Minor Girls.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 10.—Highly sensational stories concerning the alleged systematic pursuit of young girls by men of wealth and social promonence are promised at the trial of George H. Bixby here next week. Bixby, a millionaire banker residing with his family in a palatial home at Long Beach, is to be tried on an indictment charging him with aiding the delinquency of two minor girls.

Bixby's arrest came as a sequel to a police raid on the Jonquil, an apartment house which the police declare was a resort of the worst character, despite its outward respectable appearance and the luxury of its interior furnishings. The place was run by Mrs. Josie Rosenberg, against whom two indictments were returned on charges of pandering.

The raid on the Jonquil and the arrest of Mrs. Rosenberg led to a week's inquiry by the grand jury into allegations that wealthy men had an organized system of ensnaring young women and girls for immoral purposes. The indictment of millionaire Bixby was the direct result of this inquiry. The evidence on which the indictments were based was furnished chiefly by Kitty Phillips, a youthful motion picture actress, and Marie Brown-Levy, a young woman still in her teens. According to the stories told by the girls, Bixby was known at the apartments of Mrs. Rosenberg as the "Black Pearl." He is said to have been the heaviest spender at the resort, frequently distributing bills of large denomination among the young women whom he is said to have met there by introduction of Mrs. Rosenberg.

Though Bixby is said to have been the best known patron of the Jonquil, it is declared that he was only one of the large number of men of wealth and prominence in society who were frequent visitors at the place.

EDITOR SENT TO JAIL.

Would Not be Vaccinated Nor Pay Fine Imposed.

Danville, Va., July 19.—John N. Ragsdale, owner and publisher of an iconclastic sheet called "The Battle-Axe," was yesterday morning ordered to jail by Mayor Wooding for refusal to pay a fine of $10 and costs imposed more than a month ogo for failure to be vaccinated.

Ragsdale's appeal to the Corporation Court has been adversely decided and he was brought into court this morning and directed to pay his fine. Through counsel he refused postively to do so, whereupon Mayor Wooding committed him to jail. The case has been hanging on for two months.

Health Officer Hudson made the complaint against Ragsdale.

Ragsdale claims that it is contrary to his religious belief to submit to vaccination.

In court yesterday he had not a word to say, and with a weary smile, but no audible protest, went with the sergeant to the jail. While no announcement is made, it is expected that habeas corpus proceedings will be resorted to and the case will go higher.

WATSON READY TO EXPLAIN HIMSELF

Former Congressman Eager to Tell Business With Mulhall.

IN THE LECTURE FIELD

Says He, Like Secretary Bryan, Has Fixed Charges to Meet and is Losing Money by Delay.

Washington, July 19.—Former Congressman James E. Watson, of Indiana, one-time Republican "whip," who has come here to appear before the Senate lobby committee, and answer the Mulhall statements concerning him, said today he was anxious to take the stand and set forth the facts concerning himself.

"I can tell the committee in fifteen minutes the facts with reference to myself," said Mr. Watson.

"Mulhall came to Indiana while I was running for governor and I told him to do what he could. But he raised no money for me whatever. The whole thing, so far as I am concerned, can easily be explained to the committee."

Mr. Watson said he was losing money on the lecture platform by reason of being detained here. Like Mr. Bryan, he would like to get out into the lecture field and meet "fixed charges."

Because Colonel Mulhall, confessed lobbyist and strikebreaker of the National Association of Manufactureres, was on the verge of a nervous breakdown as the result of his ordeal of more than a week, the Senate lobby probers gave him a vacation today. With his story halted for the time being, the committee took up for consideration in executive session the latter's books and accounts of the National Association and those of the National Council of Industrial Defense

The commttee is in a quandary over the request recently made of them that its letters be placed in the records the same as the Mulhall correspondence has been. It is estimated that if this request is granted, fully five months would be required to get these exhibits. The N. A. M., demands the correspondence before the committee. So the committee today wrestled with the question of making a few selections as general specimens and sidetracking the rest.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.

Enjoyable Day at the Dyke—Games And Band Concert.

The Southern Methodist Sunday School gave a basket picnic yesterday to the Dyke on the electric road, which proved to be a delightful days' outing for the children and was greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

The atheltic events gave delightful entertainment in the afternoon and were as follows:

50 yards dash for boys, under 14; baseball mit, won by Elmer Davis.

Wheelbarrow race, box candy, won by Clyde Smith and Burton Richards.

Fat Men's race, picture, won by Wingate Summers.

The lovers of the baseball sport witnessed an exciting game between the Paff Shoe Factory and Southern Methodist nines the score bing 25 to 13 in favor of the former.

The special feature of the day, and no doubt the one most enjoyed by all, was the band concert at 7:30 given by the American Indian Guards Band, which made the woods ring and resound with real band music for one and a half hours. Free lemonade and cake was dispensed throughout the day, and everything possible was done for the enjoyment of the little folks by the committee as well as the railroad company who deserves much credit for the manner in which they handled the crowd of over 500 people

OFFICE DOOMED TO GO.

Pleas of Bristol Citizens Will Not be Heeded by Department.

Washington, July 19. — Postoffice department officials indicated today that there was no prospect of re-establishing the postoffice at Bristol, Va., ordered discontinued on July 31 by Postmaster-General Burleson, despite protest of citizens of that city. At present there are two postoffices at Bristol,one in Tennessee and the other on the Virginia side of the line. The Virginia office was ordered established by President Taft against the recommendation of Postmaster General Hitchcock and the inspectors who investigated the matter. The inspectors reported at that time that the postal facilities were thoroughly satisfactory to the citizens of both states, and that the sentiment appeared to be overwhelmingly against the establishment of another office.

Official declare that to maintain the Virginia office would cost the government not less than $6,000 a year additional. They say that if any additional postal service is needed on the Virginia side it could be easily and economically supplied by the establishment of a postal station.

TROUBLE AHEAD FOR THE CURRENCY BILL

Democrats are Preparing For Lively Session Next Week.

WILL CONFER MONDAY

Dr. Bulkley's Amendment Rejected—Would Prevent Interlocking Directorates.

Washington, July 19.—Facing lively times next week when the "fundamentals" of the currency bill are finally considered the Democrats of the House Banking and Currency Committee took a day off today, and did not schedule a conference. The Democrats wil confer again Monday and the real test for the harmony program comes when such features as asset currency are reached.

Before adjourning over late yesterday the conference unceremoniously rejected an amendment proposed by Congressman Bulkley to prohibit national banks from making loans to concerns in which their directors are interested. The Bulkley amendment would have prevented such loans, no matter what the collateral might be. Chairman Glass said this meant dummy directors or bankrupted banks, while Mr. Blukley contended that it was improper that a director should be both a borrower and a lender.

The section relating to loans on improved farm property will next be considered by the committee. Mr Seldomridge raised the point that if the national banks may loan on farm lands they may also take city real estate as collateral. The argument started here and the discussion went over until Monday, when other troubling problems will be tackled.

Congressman Wing has pending before the Democratic conference an amendment to prohibit interlocking directorates in the national banking systm. This reform was recommended by the Pujo committee, but the framers of the administrative currency have far discarded all Pujo recommendations and refused to reopen the money trust probe, as described by Congressman Henry and his faction in the House.

The Wingo amendment probably will meet defeat, as did the prior amandment offered by Mr. Wingo providing that government deposits shall be given to national banks under a competitive bidding system.

RUMORS OF NEW BANK.

Meeting to be Held Tonight to Consider New Financial Institution.

A number of well-known business men of Alexandria will hold a meeting tonight at which time it will be definitely decided whether this city will have another bank.

From rumors afloat since the early part of the week the promoters of this new banking institution have met with success and encouragement in the city in securing pledges for stock.

In all probability the meeting tonight will crystalie the work of the promoters who have been quietly working during the past week and develop into an organization, to establish a Savings Bank here. It is rumored that the new institution will have a capital of $500,000, and that a site on King street for a new building had been secured.

By Monday it is expected an official announcement will be forthcoming giving complete particulars with the names of those interested in the organization, which will either be completed by that time or the bank will fail of organization.

Among those interested is said to be a well-known financier of Philadelphia, but the majority of the promoters and the officers of the proposed bank who it is expected will be elected tonight are Alexandrians.

He was brought before the Police Court this morning when in answer to the charge made against him, the accused said he had no recollection of his experience last night. The court imposed a fine of $50. The young man was under the influence of liquor when arrested.

The steamer "Capital City," one of the oldest steamboats on the Potomac, will be stripped of her metal towed to the shallows near Alexandria and burned to the water's edge.

The Capital City's certificate of inspection has expired.

The Volunteer yesterday came up the Potomac to Washington to take her place under the Chesapeake and Potomac Steamboat Company. 120 feet long, has a 16 1-2 foot beam, and is capable of making about 10 miles an hour. Captain James Johnson, formerly of the Trenton, will be in charge of the new vessel.

ROW IN A RESTAURANT.

About midnight last night three young men of this city entered the Chinese restaurant on the south side of King street, between Royal and Pitt. One of the party was supposed to pay for the food served, and after eating the same one of the trio proceeded out of the place. The Chinaman fearing he would receive no money for the entertainment followed the young man to the sidewalk, and told him that the bill must be settled. An angry colloquoy followed, during which the Celestial asserted the young man threatened him with bodily harm. The restauranteur appealed to the police and Sergeant Scott and Officer Talbott appeared and arrested the Alexandrian. He was fined $5 in the Police Court this morning.

WATCHMAN RESCUES WOMAN.

Narrowly Escapes Death When Train Strikes Buggy.

Manassas, Va., July 19.—Mrs. Wm. J. Young, of Manassas, came near losing her life Thursday morning in an accident that killed her horse and completely wrecked the buggy in which she was riding.

Mrs. Young attempted to cross the Southern Railway tracks ahead of train No. 25, southbound, just after southbound trani No. 16 had passed But for the heroic action of Deerwood Payne, the crossing watchman, who dashed across the track in time to seize the horse and partly turn it off the track, Mrs. Young would have been killed. As it was, she was thrown from the vehicle and sustained no serious injuries. Those who saw the accident say Mr. Payne nearly lost his life in his efforts to save Mrs. Young.

Death is thought to have been instantaneous. His body was found by his wife when she returned from an errand to a neighboring store.

SUMMER INSTITUTE.

Enrollment Shows 316 Teachers Pursuing Studies at Fredericksburg.

Fredericksburg, Va., July 19.—Up to last night 316 teachers had been enrolled in the summer institute, which is in progress at the State Normal School here, and will continue through the month of July. This number probably will be further increased. The institute is a successful one in every way. Prof. E. H. Russell, president of the Fredericksburg State Normal School, is the conductor and there is an able faculty.

Three deaths resulted from a family quarrel yesterday at Heyton, Wis. Edward Novak, who was separated from his wife, called on her at the home of Mrs. Herman Lau. During a quarrel Novak shot and instantly killed his wife, and then killed Mrs. Lau. When Herman Lau learned of his wife's death and hunted down Novak and killed him.

Conductor Injured.

Suffolk, Va., July 19.—Yesterday morning about 3 o'clock, Capt. Chas. Shell, conductor in charge of second No. 85 fast freight on the Norfolk and Western Railroad, was thrown from the train, and painfully injured. Captain Shell, who was walking from the engine to the caboose, escaped a horrible death when he fell from the top of the car on the gravel roadway as another fast freight was coming east. He was taken up by Detective Williams, of the Cotton Detective agency and rushed to St. Andrew's Hospital.

His shoulder was dislocated and his arm badly lacerated by the fall.

FAMILY SEPARATED.

Barred in Montreal, Merchant Follows Family to Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., July 19. — Pleading that his wife and two young sons may be permitted to enter this country and the family thus reunited after being separated for several years, Selim Asses, a Syrian, on Thursday, appeared before Immigration inspector Wm. R. Morton, in charge of the local office.

Nisha Asses, the wife of Jacob Asses, 8 years old, and Zakia Asses, 5 years old, the two sons are on the Austrian steamer Polonia awaiting deportation. The three were ordered deported by the immigration officials at Montreal on the clause of forbidding the admission of persons likely to become a public charge.

Selim Asses owns a notion store at 40 Orchard street, New York. He came to the United States 5 years ago to prepare a home for his family. He prospered and about a month ago sent for his wife and two sons to come to join him in his new home. The three arrived on the Polonia at Montreal two weeks ago.

Selim was unable to get to Montreal to meet his family and was patiently awaiting their arrival at his home in New York. He started an investigation and was surprised to learn that they had been ordered deported.

Then Selim followed the steamer from Montreal to this city. He said that his family did not have a chance to communicate with him in New Yohk and that they had been ordered deported without an investigation as to his finances.

Inspector Morton sent telegrams to Washington and Montreal for permission to reopen the case and admit the family through this port. If permission is granted from Washington a board of inquiry will in all likelihood be held today as the Polonia is loading a cargo of coal in this city.

Wrong Man Buried.

Richmond, July 19.—R. E. Gregory, of 301 Randolph street, was buried July 6th at Penola, Carolina county, Virginia, as H. E. Covington.

Mr. Covington was also a resident of Richmond, and he and Mr. Gregory were taken to Williamsburg on the same day, July 1st.

On July 3rd Mr. Gregory died, but instead of reporting his death to his widow who resides at the above address the family of Mr. Covington was notified that he was dead and arrangements for his funeral were made. The body was taken to Penola and interred as E. H. Covington.

Mrs. Gregory received a letter from Williamsburg, notifying her that her husband was improved mentally and physically.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast, emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

LONG TALK FROM CITY GUIDES.

It is said that a Washington tourist guide who had just finished a long oration on the splendors of the Luther Memorial Church of the National city, and had apostrophized over the statue of the great reformer which decorated the yard when a thoughtless sightseer asked who Luther was. The guide did not want to show his ignorance. Consequentiy he made a plunge at it, and solemnly told them that Martin Luther was first pastor of the Washington church.

Tourists who visit this city often listen to guide talk which is amusing to Alexandrians. Several years ago one of these enterprising youths pointed to an antiquated cradle in the Braddock House and told the party of visitors that Washington rocked his children in it. A stone vault on the east side of the Braddock House, built as an ice housce about 1856 by the late James Green, proprietor of the Mansion House at that time, had been gazed upon by sightseers after having been told that it is a part of a fort built by Captain John Smith as a protection from Indians.

The old Friendship engine, purchased in the early fifties, is believed by many visitors to be the fire engine Washington helped to work during a fire in Alexandria.

DISCUSSION OVER MERITS OF SHAD.

The Times-Dispatch and the Index-Appeal are at odds over the entitlement of the shad to be hailed as the king of fish. The Richmond brother hold the peripatetic Alosa sapdissima in low esteem. "The poorest makeshift for real fish" that swims the Virginia waters; while the Petersburg scribe considers such taste to be execrable and lauds the 'makeshift" as far superior to the spot, hogfish, or even the mountain bass and trout. De gustibus non est disputandum is a good old proverb: and the French say chacun a son gout, which is to the same purpose.

The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot, taking a part in the controversy, declares there is no standard by which the relative merits of the various members of the piscatorial tribe can be determined. In the early spring time, when his sway there is none to dispute, the shad seems to our palate about as good eating as any that the sea or river gods provide. There was once a Richmond disciple of Lucullus who somewhat irreverently declared that his idea of heaven was a place where shad had no bones to detract from their otherwise perfection as an edible. But when, later in the season, other toothsome representatives of the finny trible come into market, we welcome the change to perch and chub, hogfish, spot and roundhead; and still after, if privileged to visit the up country we revel in the products of the ice cold streams, the spevckled beauties of the mountain brooks and bass of pelucid lakes and sparking rivulets. They are all good; each bast in its own time and environment.

It is too bad that Uncle Sam pays mileage to members of Congress. If the extra session runs into the regular one, they won't even have the satisfaction of thinking that they are saving railroad fare.

It looks as if the Secretary of State ought to have some income besides that $12,000 per year salary. Most everybody, at some time or other, has paid a fancy price to hear him lecture.

A Philadelphia magistrate reprimanded some boys yesterday for annoying courting couples in Fairmount Park. If something could now be done to repress the incorrigible small brothers, all would be well.

School children have always had trouble with their geography when they reached The Balkans, but with the boundary lines changed they have it all to do over again.

This terrible shortage in the French grape crop will be heard with entire equanimity by the Germans. The hops seem to be thriving.

GET $30,000 IN GEMS,

Blow Open Small Safe, But Large One Resists Efforts.

New York, July 19.— Cracksmen secured jewelry valued at between $20,000 and $30,000 early yesterday by blowing a safe in the establishment of Rosenberg & Daniel, a jewelry supply house A larger safe, containing a more valuable collection of jewels, withstood the attempts to open it.

The place robbed is on Grand street, only a few blocks from police headquarters.

The thieves gained entrance to the place with a skeleton key and apparently worked at their leisure.

Three safes in all were shattered, but a big vault, containing gold and loose diamonds defied them.

They left behind enough burglar tools to fill a small wagon.

BIG SALE STARTS MONDAY.

D. Bendheim & Sons Offer Reductions on All Goods.

Midsummer clearance sales in ladies' ready-to-wear garments, white goods, wash goods, summer dress goods and embroidery and laces for dress trimmings are always popular with the shopper, even though the weather is warm and somewhat tiring on the seeker after real bargains, such as are being offered today by Dr. Bendheim & Sons in their big midsummer clearance sale which starts Monday.

As a rule midsummer sales are held annually and are for the purpose of disposing of surplus stocks on the shelves, that room may be secured for fall goods. To the careful and wise shopper, these summer sales offer the best opportunity of the year to secure everything needed by ladies and children in wearing apparel and at prices which mean a big saving to purchasers.

The Bendheim s propose during the progress of this sale to lower prices on summer merchandise to such a low figure that this sale will be long remembered as one in which values and profits were lost sight of in order to close out absolutely, all summer merchandise, among which may be mentioned such desirable articles as ladies' ready-to-wear garments, fine tailor made white and linen skirts, white net and shadow lace waists, ginghams, children's white dresses, dressing sacques, wash goods of every description and of the very best patterns, fancy lawns,linen crash suitings, shirting madras, blouse linens, bleached cottons, bleached sheets, apron ginghams and fancy draperies. There will also be a big stock of bargains in fancy laces, all over embroideries, lace bandings and embroidery and lace medallions in short lengths which will be sold at half price.

Some excellent bargains in fine Swiss, Hamburg and nainsook embroidery will be offered and some fancy attractive pieces of 27-inch batiste flouncings.

This sale offers the ladies who desire to secure real bargains one of the greatest opportunities to save money on their purchases ever presented during mid summer.

The remarkable array of goods and the bargain prices at which they are to be sold should bring out every one in Alexandria to look over the stock offered and make their purchases now, for the entire season, as this is a chance seldom offered.

SOLID STERLING SILVER.

Attractive Designs Which Appeal to all Seeking the Best Ware.

Solid sterling silver is admittedly the most popular and best material ever devised by man for use in the manufacture of fine table ware, when attractiveness, style and real service is to be considered.

To the artist, silver has always been the ture interpreting medium for the imaginatinon, which has been productive of much that is really, choice in table ware. Especially is this true of the smaller pieces of silver, such as spoons, forks and knives, which are constantly in service and multiplied by their wide demand are often badly designed and cheaply gotten up by the manufacturer and the markets flooded with the articles.

To collect real artistically designed table ware is always a most satisfying achievement, and every home should be careful, in purchasing such articles to assure themselves that what they buy will serve to dress up their dining tables in keeping with refined and correct usage.

American pride of ancestry has been in evidence now for over a century, and to the purchaser of silverware for the table, quality should be the first consideration, for no one wishes to be the owner of spoons and forks of such poor quality that a few years of use will show such wear that the silver must shame the hostess when placed before guests at the table. Really the only kind to buy is the sort that will last through the years to come, so that one hundred years hence the table silver as a family heirloom will far surpass its first purchase price in value.

We are all familiar with that truism which says that to buy the best is always the cheapest for "quality is remembered long after the price is forgotten." This is something to bear in mind in making any purchase. Especially is this true of table silver ware, for it is only the ebst that is worth buying.

By the best is meant such table ware as is selected for its fine quality and fine workmanship, and because the seemingly simple spoo nand fork has been under the hand and inspiration of a gifted designer in silver, who possesses that originality which enables the artist to take the best patterns from the famous courts of Europe, and through application of skill and genius to devise a modern example of what may be termed classical design in artistic silver table ware so popular nowadays.

A great many of the finest examples of the silversmith's art in sterling silver table ware has been placed on sale and is now displayed at the store of W. H. Wildt & Son, who offer this week a big assortment of solid silver spoons and forks of the finest workmanship and quality, the kind of table ware that you may rest content to own, for it will last for a century, and if offered as a gift will forever be remembered by the recipient because of the quality that will stand the wear.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess", says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good.

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

MISS AMES VIRGINIAN'S BRIDE

Massachusetts Woman Weds George Lafayette Washington.

Winchester, Va., July 19.— Miss Katherine Barke Ames, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blanchard Ames, of Boston, Mass., who have a summer home here, and George Lafayette Washington, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blackburn Washington, formerly of Charlestown, Jefferson county, W. Va., but now of Woodbury, N. J., were married here last night in Christ Protestant Episcopal Church.

The ceremony was performed by Rt. Rev. William Loyall Gravatt, of Charlestown, bishop-coadjutor of the Diocese of West Virginia, assisted by Rev. W. D. Smith, rector of Christ church, and it was witnessed by a very large gathering of family connections and friends from Philadelphia, Boston, New York, Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Norfolk, and other cities of the East and Middle West, as well as scores from Virginia West Virginia, Maryland and other States.

The bride who was escorted by her father, by whom she was given in marriage, wore an imported gown of simple design, it being of white satin trimmed with lace and orange blossoms. She wore an old-fashioned veil which covered her face the veil being held by a spray of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her only attendant was her elder sister, Miss Marie Donaldson Ames of Boston. John A. Washington, of Clarksburg, W. Va., a brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

A reception was held immediately after the marriage ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ames.

Mr. Washington and his bride left Thursday night on an extended wedding trip, after which they will live at Woodbury.

The bride is a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families of Massachusetts, being directly descended from original Mayflower stock.

Mr. Washington is likewise very prominently connected, being a lineal descendant of a brother of Gen. George Washington.

NOTHING TO DO BUT JUMP.

Trenton, July 19.—Chased by a bull early yesterday, Patrolman Johnston Konover jumped into the canal feeder and thus saved his life. The bull got lose while being driven through the street and Konover made an attempt to catch it. The animal turned on the policeman and chased him to the edge of the canal bank.

Then there yas nothing for Konover to do but jump. Later the patrolman used a baseball bat to subdue the bull.

LEAPS IN HER DREAM.

First Sight of Film Cowboys Almost Fatal to Woman of 93.

Latrobe, Pa., July 19.—After viewing a moving picture show for the first time Tuesday night, Mary Taylor, aged 93, in her dreams saw cowboys shooting each other up and got out of bed and jumped from her bedroom window. She was seriously injured.

She told her children in her nightmare she thought that the moving picture cow boys were going to shoot her and she jumped out of the window.

DRIVEN TO SUICIDE.

Engineer Haunted by Mother of Dead Child.

Philadelphia Pa., July 19.—The relentless vengeance of Mrs. Rose Crovowicz, whose 6-year-old son was killed on May 7, last by a switching engine run by Engineer Lewis F. Faber, is assigned as the cause of the engineer's suicide Thursday following an attempt to murder his wife and three children.

On May 7 last the engine in charge of Faber ran down and killed the Crovowicz boy at a street crossing. The accident unnerved Faber and he took four days off after which he returned to work.

Ever after that when his engine passed the fatal crossing the engineer noticed a woman sitting by the track, and as his engine went by she silently pointed her finger at the engineer, and held her arm raised as long as his engine remained in sight, when she ambled away from the track and back to her home. The woman never failed to be on hand night or day when the engine passed.

Faber made an investigation and found that the woman was the mother of the six-year-old boy his engine had accidentally killed. He sent friends to request her to keep away from the track. She refused to remain away.

Two weeks ago Faber told his wife that the woman was driving him insane. Yesterday he proved it by attempting to kill the family and then killing himself.

LIVELY TILT IN THE SENATE.

Resolution on Lecturing Stirs Senate to Bitter Debate—Bristow Called To Order.

Washington, July 19. — Secretary Bryan's policy of lecturing in his vacation time involved the Senate in a bitter controversy yesterday. It began when Senator Bristow, ignoring the defeat of his resolution directed at Mr. Bryan's action, insisted upon being heard in severe criticism of the cabinet officer.

Before the debate ended charges and counter charges between Senators on the two sides of the chamber had brought the Senate to a high pitch of excitement. Senator Ashhurst procured an old letter of Senator Bristow's which he declared indicated that Mr. Bristow in 1906 had been perfectly willing to take a Federal position and devote only part of his time to it.

Senator Bristow retorted with the charge that Senator Ashrust had spent more than $100 of public funds, sending private telegrams that should have been paid for from his own packet, a charge denied by Senator Ashhurst, but which Senator Bristow agreed to prove by producing original telegrams that had been paid for out of Senate funds.

As the vote was anounced Senator Bristow declared:

"You may shut off debate in the Senate, but you cannot convince the American people that a Secretary of State may neglect the duties of his office for three months a year."

Vice-President Marshall ruled Senator Bristow out of order.

From personal accusations the debate went into the general field of public lecturing and writing, and Democratic senators called attention to the Chautauqua platform work of Senator Bristow and many others and to the newspaper writing that Senator Bristow had done during the last Baltimore convention.

The Bristow resolution, introduced Tuesday, calling upon President Wilson to state what salary would be sufficient to secure all of Secretary Bryan's time, was tabled by a vote of 41 to 29 as soon as it came up yesterday all of the Democrats and Senators Borah and Poindexter opposing it.

RIDES WOMAN ON RAIL.

Stripping Victim, Militant Censors Parade Streets.

Chicago, July 19.—Fifteen jealous women, aided by small boys, Wednesday night, treated Mrs. John Richardson, aged 38, and pretty, to a ride on an 18-foot rail, after tearing off her skirts, so that she could be lashed comfortably to her wooden horse.

After parading Mrs. Richardson through the village streets while the male population looked on sheepishly, an angry woman advised her to get out of town and remain away.

John Richardson, her husband, about 10 years her senior, is a crippled storekeeper, confined to a wheel chair, and the offense of his pretty wife seems to have been accepting the attentions of Will Dunnlii, about her own age, whose wife is Richardson's sister.

Wednesday night she was summoned out of her house by the other women, who seized her, tore off most of her clothing, and then paraded her on the rail, which to be exact, was a smooth half of a telegraph pole.

Yesterday her husband went to Waukegan to bring divorce proceedings. His wife expressed a desire to get out of such a bigoted town and he drew $1,500 from the bank and gave it to her. She immediately deposited the money in a Waukegan bank and faded from view.

American Ambassador to England Talks of Anglo-Saxons.

London, July 19.—The Anglo-Saxon Club, at its banquet last night, had as its guest of honor the American Ambassador Walter H. Page, Earl Grey, former Governor-General of Canada, presided, while among the guests were the Lord Mayor and the sheriff of London, Lieut-Gen. Sir Robert Barden-Powell.

In reply to the toast of Earl Grey Ambassador Page dwelt upon the great prerogative of the Anglo-Saxon race—leadership. He said that every President of the United States had been dominantly of English or of Scotch blood, while the overwhelming majority of Mayors, members of Congress and presidents of educational institutions in America bore names of English, Irish or Scotch descent.

A. B. Garretson and W. G. Lee representing the 82,000 disgruntled conductors and trainmen on the Eastern railroads, have notified the chairmen of all the unions involved, to hold themselves in readiness for an immediate strike order.

After two stormy sessions of the general committee representing the 82,000 union conductors and trainmen who have voted to strike if they are not given a 20 per cent. increase in pay, it was announced in New York Thursday that employees will not consent to arbitrate unless the issue is confined to the wage question. All hope of an early settlement of the controversy was abandoned when the employes learned officialy that the railway managers had named eight specific grievances upon which arbitration would be demanded simultaneously with the wage question. Feeling ran so high at the meeting it was impossible to maintain the usual secrecy. It is known that many of the executive members urged Leaders Garretson and Lee to call a strike immediately.

Samuel Delucca, of 33 North Ave., New York, was walking along 114th street with his wife, last night, when a man, who had followed them for several blocks, suddenly plunged a knife into Delucca's neck. Mrs. Delucca tried to help her husband, who had grappled with his assailant, when the latter slashed at her, inflicting a deep wound on the side of her head. At that moment, the man with the knife suddenly straightened up, staggered a few steps, and fell to the sidewalk. When an ambulance surgeon arrived from Harlem Hospital and found that he was dead. He had been shot through the heart. Delucca and his wife protested that neither of them had fired the shot that ended the life of their assailant, who was later identified as Pasquale Calabara, of Acqueduct Alley, N. J. I.
